The Stonewall Extension Homemaker's Club met with Eleanor Stratton, on April 19, 1973. There were five members present and we were pleased to have two visitors, Rev. Dennis Moore and Rev. S. D. Sprinkle,Jr., missionary to Costa Rica.

The meeting opened with the reading of a poem by Eleanor Stratton, Rev. Moore led in prayer.

Following the roll call, the minutes were read and approved, then the Treasurer's report was given.

The President told us of a meeting on Wed., April 25 at the Virginia Baptist Hospital on "Understanding Your Heart," co-sponsored by the Virginia Farm Bureau Federation on Thursday, April 26. There will be a Leaders Training meeting at Crewe, for the May program, and Friday, April 27 is the day of the Fireman's Carnival at Concord School.

Lillian Routon discussed the proposed trip which will be during the latter part of May. The tour will go to Carter's Grove Plantation and the Pottery Shop at Williamsburg.

Since there was no old or new business, the meeting was closed with the Homemaker's Creed and Prayer. Then the program leader showed slides on "Pruning Trees and Shrubs."

Rev. Sprinkle showed slides of his work in Costa Rica, and gave a very interesting talk.
